

Security's Role in Enhancing Organizational Resilience

Conference Workshop will be held at the acclaimed Morris J Wosk Centre, Simon Fraser University which is conveniently located in beautiful downtown Vancouver, British Columbia

In this Conference Workshop:

Learn the latest approaches to achieving your organization's core objectives in the face of adversity, unexpected changes and security risks that can permanently impair corporate earnings. Participate in open discussions on how advance preparation in this leading field of Organizational Resilience will have an impact on your Organization.

- Security's Role in Enhancing Organizational Resilience,
- How to integrate Organizational Resilience into the fabric of the Organization,
- How to Evaluate Quality Assurance within your organization's security program,
- Environmental Crime Control - How it contributes to the risk management and security governance process,
- The Business Side of Security – Security Life Cycle and Return-on-Investment, and
- The Business of Resilience - Corporate governance and corporate social responsibility.

Conference Details:

Location:

Morris J Wosk Centre for Dialogue
580 West Hastings Street
Vancouver, British Columbia

Workshop:

Monday, October 31st, 2011: 07:30-16:30

Tuesday, November 1st, 2011: 08:15-16:30

Wednesday, November 2nd 2011: 08:15-14:00

Keynote Speaker:

Dave Tyson, MBA, CPP, CISSP

Dave Tyson is currently Vice President, Security Risk Advisory Services for Apollo Information Systems delivering Enterprise Security Risk Advisory services for Fortune 500 companies.

Prior to his current position, Dave was the Senior Director and CISO Pacific Gas and Electric (PG&E). He has been working in the IT and Physical Security Industry for 27 Years. His focus has been on Security Convergence and Managing Enterprise Security Risk.

Mr. Tyson has Master's Degree in Business Administration (MBA) specializing in Digital Technology Management, is a Certified Protection Professional (CPP) and is Board Certified in Security Management, and is a Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP). Dave is a member of the Board of Directors for ASIS International.

Dave will discuss the changing risk environment for businesses operating on a global scale, and the importance of maintaining organizational resiliency.

Registration Fees:

$500.00 Cdn

Breakfast and Lunch is included

Plus

16 – CPP, PSP or PCI Recertification credits will be provided to all registrants attending the 3 day conference

Workshop Speakers Include:

John Gargett

Managing Principal - Trusys

Learn how to use a risk-based management approach to implementing the ANSI/ASIS Organizational Resilience Standard is critical to achieving self-sustaining results and validating insurance requirements.

Steve Surfaro

Strategic Channel Manager- Axis Communications
Chairman, Education Committee, Physical Security Council at ASIS International

Understand the Physical and Cyber Security Convergence in organization resilience. Learn about the interdependencies of Critical Infrastructure Protection, Information Systems Security, Physical Security Management.

George Bell

Chief Security, Safety & Environmental Officer
BC Rapid Transit Company

Quality Assurance within your organization's security program – Learn how to assure the level to which security processes, practices, protocols and technology are effective.

Glen Kitteringham,

Kitteringham Security Group Inc.

Learn many of the challenges that security practitioners regularly face and provides several tactics which can be utilized to assist in organizational resilience.

Phillip Banks

Director, The Banks Group Inc.

Security's Role in Enhancing Organizational Resilience – Examination of process, issues and opportunities, Learn where and to what extent risk management forms part of the organizational resilience process.

and More

Visit the web site for a complete list of speakers and topics.

Panel Discussion

A 4 member panel will discuss a wide range of topics associated with Leadership and Organizational Resilience from various perspectives. Specific issues current within today's security environment will be openly discussed.

Tradeshow and Social Event:

As part of the Conference, Exhibitors will be on hand Tuesday to display and discuss the latest products and services within the Industry.

A special evening Social Mixer designed for delegates and Exhibitors will be held from 16:40 to 18:30 in the exhibit area. The event features live entertainment and provides an excellent opportunity to meet and mingle with Exhibitors, Speakers and fellow colleagues.

Who is Attending:

This Conference is a must to Senior Management and Security Professionals practicing in both the Public and Private Sectors including; Health Care, Telecommunications, Government Officials, Shopping centre and office buildings, Port Authorities, Emergency and Continuity Planning.

For more information on Speakers, Registration and Workshop details, please visit:

<http://www.asis-canada.org/physical-security-conference-2011>

Or Contact:

Sarah Elliott @ 778-899-4549 Registration

Kyle Fairfield @ 778-837-9308 Exhibitor Information

Reserve Now as Space is Limited!

ASIS Canadian Pacific Chapter #190
Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada